Colorado State, Navy To Battle In Inaugural Poinsettia Bowl Game

Colorado State will make its ninth bowl appearance in the past 12 seasons, and 11th in school history, when coach Sonny Lubick's Rams face the Navy Midshipmen in the first-ever San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl. The Rams earned their sixth bowl trip in the last seven years with a 6-5 record and 5-3 Mountain West Conference mark (tie, second). Navy concludes its regular season against Army Dec. 3 and has a chance to win a third consecutive Commander in Chief Trophy. Colorado State returns to a familiar bowl site in San Diego for the game. Three times in the 1990's - 1994, '95, '97 - the Rams played in the Holiday Bowl. Colorado State defeated Missouri, 35-24 in 1997, the team's most recent trip to San Diego for a bowl game. Colorado State has made more bowl appearances - nine - since 1994 than any other current MWC member institution.

One In Common

Colorado State and Navy faced one common opponent in 2005. The Rams defeated Air Force, 41-23 in Fort Collins. Nine days later, Navy downed the Falcons, 27-24 in Annapolis, N

COLORADO STATE FOOTBALL

Stadium Facts

Since Sonny Lubick's arrival in 1993, Colorado State has won nearly 75 percent of the team's home games. Sonny Lubick Field at Hughes Stadium has been the site to some of the greatest games in school history, and national and regional television broadcasts take place at nearly every home game.

The stadium lies at the base of the foothills of the Rocky Mountains, about two miles west of the main campus area and in one of the most scenic settings to be found anywhere. In 2000, permanent lighting standards were installed, then 4,400 additional permanent seats were constructed in the north end zone for the beginning of the 2004 season.

Sonny Lubick, Head Coach
13th Season • Western Montana '60

Sonny Lubick has established a new threshold for greatness during 13 seasons as Colorado State's head football coach.

Since taking over a program that had won just 47 games in 11 seasons with just one bowl appearance prior to his arrival in 1993, Lubick has guided the Rams' program to elite status nationally.

For example:

- Colorado State has won or shared six conference titles since 1994, more than any other Mountain West Conference member over that period;
- CSU is making its ninth bowl appearance, more than any other league institution;
- The Rams rank among the top 20 teams in the nation in total victories since 1997;
- Lubick ranks among the top 20 NCAA Division IA active coaches in career wins;
- Colorado State has won more MWC games than any other conference team;
- The Rams have seven times since Lubick's arrival won eight or more games in a season. Four times – the only four times in school history – CSU has won 10 or more games under Lubick's watchful eye.

“Sonny Lubick is one of the top coaches in the country. His teams are successful because they are always so well prepared. His record speaks for itself. He has definitely earned his reputation of being one of the best coaches around.”

- Mike Shanahan, Denver Broncos

Lubick has ushered in by far the most successful era in the history of CSU football. His fingerprint can be seen on the results on the field as well as at the turnstile.

Not only have the Rams been perennial postseason competitors, but nine of the top 10 seasons in total attendance in school history have come during his reign. Additionally, eight of the 10 largest single game crowds in CSU history have come since his arrival.

Lubick also joined another elite list of coaches including Joe Paterno, Bobby Bowden, and Frank Beamer, in 2005 as active Division IA coaches with 100 or more career wins at their current institutions. The group includes only nine members, of which Lubick is now a member.

Interest and support of CSU's program has never been greater. The 2005 season marked the completion of an 18-month project to renovate and expand Sonny Lubick Field at Hughes Stadium. The project was made possible through a $15.2 million

“Sonny Lubick's accomplishments have made Colorado State's name synonymous with excellent college football. He's an outstanding coach for his university, and a great mentor for the young men playing the game and for all coaches in our profession.”

- Bob Stoops, University of Oklahoma

gift by the Bohemian Foundation, with a caveat the stadium's playing surface be named in Lubick's honor.

The project included the installation of 4,400 new seats, the renovation of the press box and club seating area, and the addition of 12 luxury suites – each of which were sold prior to the beginning of the 2005 season.

The success enjoyed by the Rams' program under Lubick's watch has touched the entire department.

For instance, during his tenure, the department has been able to:

- Renovate and expand the stadium ($15.2 million)
- Acquire a $200,000 gift from former CSU all-star and current NFL All-Pro linebacker Joey Porter, who played for Lubick in the 1990's;
- Secure funding and build the McGraw Athletic Center ($5.5 million), completed in 1999, which houses offices for every athletic department staff member, includes an academic support center, athletic marketing, promotions, and ticket offices, and breakout rooms for football position meetings, as well as a 125-seat auditorium for team meetings and special functions;
- Renovate Moby Arena ($4.5 million in 1998 as part of the McGraw Center project.

Those projects alone total more than $25 million, made possible in large part by the success CSU's football program has enjoyed since Lubick's arrival.

Lubick cares deeply about the people around him, particularly the program's student-athletes and his staff members. He has carefully built CSU's programs into one of the nation's best using a time-tested philosophy:

- Responsibility: Each member of the Rams' program is responsible for their actions and the impact on the success of the team.
- Character: Lubick places a premium on student-athletes who display integrity and honesty.
- Respect: Earning respect among peers, fans, and colleagues remains more important to the veteran coach than gaining popularity from those groups.
- Perspective: Remain on an even keel, win or lose. Lubick has those in the program focused on the goal ahead.

“Sonny is one of the outstanding college football coaches that I’ve come to know. He is an excellent person and coach. He does a wonderful job with his program and is a credit to our profession.”

- Joe Paterno, Penn State University

Lubick’s impact has been felt not only in the football program or athletics department, but across the university and throughout the community:

- He was named the SPORTS ILLUSTRATED coach of the year in 1994 after leading CSU to a 10-2 record, conference title and berth in the Holiday Bowl;
- In 2003, Lubick was named one of four national finalists for the Eddie Robinson Coach of Distinction Award for his community service work;
- Also in 2003, the Rams’ coach was recognized by the American Diabetes Association-Colorado Chapter as “Father of the Year.”
- He is an annual contributor and participant in several local and national charities including the St. Jude’s Children’s Hospital campaign;
- In May of 2005, he was named Citizen of the Year by the Fort Collins Board of Realtors.

Lubick remains staunch in his belief a family approach is one of the reasons for Colorado State’s success during his tenure.

Five of his current coaching staff members – Karl Ballard, Tom Ehlers, Darrell Funk, Dan Hammerschmidt, and his son, Marc – either played or coached under Lubick during his first stint in Fort Collins or his return beginning in 1993.

Marc joined the staff in 2005 after being on the staff of the St. Louis Rams. He replaced his older brother, Matt, who departed for a position at the University of Mississippi.

Assistants Mick Delaney and Dave Arnold both coached alongside Lubick at Montana State. Steve Stanard and James Ward had previous ties to long-time Lubick colleagues, while Jessie Williams was on the same coaching staff as Matt Lubick.

The existence of the family feeling can be seen throughout the program. For instance, 10 sets of brothers are or formerly have played for Lubick and his staff at Colorado State, a testament to the way a student-athlete is treated in the program.

Further testament to his belief in a family atmosphere takes place after every home game. After conducting his postgame news conference and greeting wife Carol Jo, Lubick is always embraced by his two young grandsons – Matthew and William –

“I have been fortunate to have played for Coach Lubick. To me he ranks up there with a select group of coaches who make a difference in not only a program, but a community. His influence rubs off on his players.”

- Bradlee Van Pelt, Quarterback; Denver Broncos

sons of his daughter, Michelle, and son-in-law Gerard Boyle.

Lubick’s smile while embracing his two youngest Rams fans reflects the same happiness CSU supporters have come to appreciate during the most successful era in school history.
