SHORT TIME

Colorado State's game at Nevada had an elapsed time of only 2 hours, 25 minutes. That's the shortest game played by the Rams since 1985, when Colorado State lost at LSU, 17-3 in a game that took 2 hours, 21 minutes.

TWO IN A ROW

Colorado State has lost its last two visits to Fresno, 32-30 in 2002 and 44-13 in 1999. In six games played between the team sin Fresno, the Bulldogs have won four times.

TWO IN A ROW, PART II

Colorado State hopes to avoid back-to-back losses by winning at Fresno State. Colorado State has lost back-to-back games - including three games in a row twice - only 12 times in Sonny Lubick's 14 seasons. In five of those seasons, the Rams played in a bowl game.

LONE STAR STARTER

QB Caleb Hanie is the first Texan to open a season at quarterback under Rams' coach Sonny Lubick. Since 1993, the Rams have boasted a trio of Coloradans (Justin Holland, 2004, '05; Matt Newton, 1999, 2000; Ryan Eslinger (1998) and two Californians (D.J. Busch, 2001; Moses Moreno, 1995) to open the season. No Texan has been the team's opening-game starter in the past 50 seasons.

IN NO RUSH

Colorado State's rushing defense currently ranks second in the Mountain West Conference and 12th nationally, allowing just 69.3 yards per game. The Rams in three games have yet to allow an opposing runner to gain more than 100 yards.

TOTAL DEFENSE THIRD

Colorado State is also among the nation's leaders in total defense. The Rams are allowing just 204.3 yards per game through three contests, second in the league and third nationally. Colorado State's pass defense is ranked second in the MWC and 11th nationally, allowing 135 yards per game.

SACK PACK

Through three games, Colorado State's defense has been credited with 13 quarterback sacks. A season ago, Colorado State did not get the team's 13th sack until the ninth game of the campaign.

SACK PAGES

S Mike Pagnotta was credited with another quarterback sack in CSU's game at Nevada. Pagnotta now has three sacks on the season, one more than any defensive back accumulated during the entire 2005 season. His sack total is just one shy of the team leader - DE Jesse Nading - who had four last season.

CAREER NIGHT

Former walkon S Mike Pagnotta enjoyed the finest night of his career at Nevada. Pagnotta, a sophomore, had a career-most 11 tackles - the first CSU player in 2006 to finish a game in double figures in tackles. Pagnotta, who leads the league in sacks and is 10th nationally, also had the first interception of his career in the game with Nevada.

NO RUSH 20

Through the first three games of the season, Colorado State's defense has yet to allow an opposing rusher to gain more than 20 yards on a single play. The longest rush allowed to date is 17 yards.

KAYLOR ON CAREER LIST

P Jimmie Kaylor currently is atop the school's list for career punting average. In 2005 he led the MWC and ranked fourth nationally in punting average, 45.3. Kaylor has 11 career punts of 50 yards or longer, and four longer than 60 yards. He has also had 13 career punts downed inside the opponent's 20-yard line. In his career, Kaylor has punted 68 times for 3,076 yards, a 45.2 average.

Career Punting Average

Player	Avg.	Years
Jimmie Kaylor	45.2	2004-06
Mike Deutsch	44.3	1974-77
Deone Horinek	43.4	1998-99
Jeff Babcock	42.7	2003-04
Rod Blackford	42.1	1971-73
Tim Luke	41.7	1987-90
Tom Templer	41.3	1978-81
Joey Huber	40.9	2000-02
Larry Barnes	40.4	1955-56
Mike McGee	39.9	1992-93

RECEIVING BREAKDOWN

Player	Thrown To	Receptions	Rcpt. Pct.
Johnny Walker	23	19	.826
Damon Morton	17	12	.706
Kory Sperry	14	10	.714
Luke Roberts	7	4	.571
George Hill	4	2	.500
Dustin Osborn	2	1	.333
Chris Kawoluk	2	0	.000
Nnamdi Ohaeri	1	1	1.000
Totals	70	49	.700

Key: Thrown To, passes thrown to a receiver; Rcpt. Pct., percentage of passes thrown to and caught.

NINE RUNS

Through three games, Colorado State has had nine running plays longer than 10 yards, including a season-best 35-yard gain by RB Nnamdi Ohaeri in the opening game against Weber State. Of the nine rushing plays longer than 10 yards, four are by non-runningbacks: QB Caleb Hanie (22, 13, and 11 yards, respectively) has three rushes longer than 10 yards, and WR Johnny Walker (11) has one.

SCORELESS STREAK

Colorado State has not scored an offensive touchdown in six quarters of play, dating back to a scoring pass from QB Caleb Hanie to TE Kory Sperry at the 3:48 mark of the second quarter in the 14-10 win over Colorado for the game-winning score. The scoreless streak covers a span of 93 minutes, 48 seconds

DRIVE TIME

Colorado State has had 30 offensive possessions in three games, as have the opponents. CSU's average starting position is the team's own 31-yard line. Opponents on average have started at their own 33. Six of CSU's 30 drives to date have started inside the Rams' own 20-yard line, while opponents have started three times inside the 20.

ON THE ROAD

Colorado State has a 45-30 record in 75 road games during Sonny Lubick's 14-year career in Fort Collins. The Rams have had losing records on the road only three times - 1993, 2004, 2005 - in the past 13 years. The Rams are 3-9 on the road covering the 2004 season through the team's loss at Nevada.

DIRTY LAUNDRY

Colorado State annually is one of the least-penalized teams in the MWC. To date, CSU is averaging nearly five penalties for 38 yards per game. Opponents are averaging six penalties for 47 yards in three games.

SUDDEN CHANGE

In three games, the Rams have committed five turnovers. Colorado State's defense has allowed only three field goals following those turnovers.

FIRST STARTS

Two Colorado State players made their initial starts in the Rams' game at Nevada. DE Bob Vomhof drew his second career start, as did RB Nnamdi Ohaeri. Ohaeri started the 2005 season opener at Colorado but suffered an ankle injury in that game which limited his playing time last season.

BLOCK PARTY

Redshirt freshman LB Sedric Patterson generated Colorado State's only touchdown at Nevada by blocking a punt and recovering it for a touchdown. It was the first time since the 2001 New Orleans Bowl that the Rams had blocked a punt and recovered it for a touchdown. CSU's most recent blocked punt came in 2005, by S Zac Bryson against Nevada, but the Rams did not score on the blocked kick.

LUBICK SECOND ON LIST

Rams' coach Sonny Lubick is in his 14th season at the helm in 2006. Only Harry Hughes, who was the school's football coach for 31 years, had a longer tenure than Lubick. Hughes was 125-93-18 during his career. Lubick has a 102-57-0 record, and has the highest winning percentage, 64.1, of any coach in school history. He has led CSU to six conference titles and nine bowl games.

STADIUM FACTS

Since Sonny Lubick's arrival in 1993, Colorado State has won nearly 75 percent of the team's home games. Sonny Lubick Field at Hughes Stadium has been the site to some of the greatest games in school history, and national and regional television broadcasts take place at nearly every home game.

The stadium lies at the base of the foothills of the Rocky Mountains, about two miles west of the main campus area and in one of the most scenic settings to be found anywhere. In 2000, permanent lighting standards were installed, then 4,400 additional permanent seats were constructed into the north end zone for the beginning of the 2004 season.

SONNY LUBICK
HEAD COACH
14th Season • Western Montana '60

Sonny Lubick has established a new standard for greatness during 13 seasons as Colorado State's head football coach.

Since taking over a program that had won just 47 games in 11 seasons with just one bowl appearance prior to his arrival in 1993, Lubick has guided the Rams' program to elite status nationally.

For example:

- Colorado State has won or shared six conference titles since 1994, more than any other Mountain West Conference member over that period;
- CSU has played in nine bowl games, more than any other league institution since 1994;
- The Rams rank among the top 20 teams in the nation in total victories since 1997;
- Lubick ranks among the top 20 NCAA Division IA active coaches in career wins;
- Colorado State has won more MWC games than any other conference team;
- The Rams have seven times since Lubick's arrival won eight or more games in a season. Four times – the only four times in school history – CSU has won 10 or more games under Lubick's watchful eye.

Lubick has ushered in by far the most successful era in the history of CSU football. His fingerprint can be seen on the results on the field as well as at the turnstile.

Not only have the Rams been perennial postseason competitors, but nine of the top 10 seasons in total attendance in school history have come during his reign. Additionally, eight of the 10 largest single game crowds in CSU history have come since his arrival.

Lubick also joined another elite list of coaches including Joe Paterno, Bobby Bowden, and Frank Beamer, in 2005 as active Division IA coaches with 100 or more career wins at their current institutions. The group includes only nine members, of which Lubick is now a member.

Interest and support of CSU's program has never been greater. The 2005 season marked the completion of an 18-month project to renovate and expand Sonny Lubick Field at Hughes Stadium. The project was made possible through a $15.2 million gift by the Bohemian Foundation, with a caveat the stadium's playing surface be named in Lubick's honor.

The project included the installation of 4,400 new seats, the renovation of the press box and club seating area, and the addition of 12 luxury suites – each of which were sold prior to the beginning of the 2005 season.

The success enjoyed by the Rams' program under Lubick's watch has touched the entire department.

For instance, during his tenure, the department has been able to:

- Renovate and expand the stadium ($15.2 million)
- Acquire a $200,000 gift from former CSU all-star and current NFL All-Pro linebacker Joey Porter, who played for Lubick in the 1990's;
- Secure funding and build the McGraw Athletic Center ($5.5 million), completed in 1999, which houses offices for every athletic department staff member, includes an academic support center, athletic marketing, promotions, and ticket offices, and breakout rooms for football position meetings, as well as a 125-seat auditorium for team meetings and special functions;

- Renovate Moby Arena ($4.5 million in 1998 as part of the McGraw Center project.

Those projects alone total more than $25 million, made possible in large part by the success CSU's football program has enjoyed since Lubick's arrival.

Lubick cares deeply about the people around him, particularly the program's student-athletes and his staff members. He has carefully built CSU's programs into one of the nation's best using a time-tested philosophy:

- Responsibility: Each member of the Rams' program is responsible for their actions and the impact on the success of the team.
- Character: Lubick places a premium on student-athletes who display integrity and honesty.
- Respect: Earning respect among peers, fans, and colleagues remains more important to the veteran coach than gaining popularity from those groups.
- Perspective: Remain on an even keel, win or lose. Lubick has those in the program focused on the goal ahead.

Lubick's impact has been felt not only in the football program or athletics department, but across the university and throughout the community:

- He was named the SPORTS ILLUSTRATED coach of the year in 1994 after leading CSU to a 10-2 record, conference title and berth in the Holiday Bowl;
- In 2003, Lubick was named one of four national finalists for the Eddie Robinson Coach of Distinction Award for his community service work;
- Also in 2003, the Rams' coach was recognized by the American Diabetes Association-Colorado Chapter as "Father of the Year."
- He is an annual contributor and participant in several local and national charities including the St. Jude's Children's Hospital campaign;
- In May of 2005, he was named Citizen of the Year by the Fort Collins Board of Realtors.

Lubick remains staunch in his belief a family approach is one of the reasons for Colorado State's success during his tenure.

Five of his current coaching staff members – Karl Ballard, Tom Ehlers, Darrell Funk, Dan Hammerschmidt, and his son, Marc – either played or coached under Lubick during his first stint in Fort Collins or his return beginning in 1993.

Marc joined the staff in 2005 after being on the staff of the St. Louis Rams. He replaced his older brother, Matt, who departed for a position at the University of Mississippi.

Assistants Mick Delaney and Dave Arnold both coached alongside Lubick at Montana State. Steve Stanard and James Ward had previous ties to long-time Lubick colleagues, while Jessie Williams was on the same coaching staff as Matt Lubick.

The existence of the family feeling can be seen throughout the program. For instance, 10 sets of brothers are or formerly have played for Lubick and his staff at Colorado State, a testament to the way a student-athlete is treated in the program.

Further testament to his belief in a family atmosphere takes place after every home game. After conducting his postgame news conference and greeting wife Carol Jo, Lubick is always embraced by his two young grandsons – Matthew and William – sons of his daughter, Michelle, and son-in-law Gerard Boyle.

Lubick's smile while embracing his two youngest Rams fans reflects the same happiness CSU supporters have come to appreciate during the most successful era in school history.
